1 Q. So I'd be correct, you'd never been in the
2 situation where you seem him intoxicated in
3 your opinion?

4 A. No.

5 Q. All right. Had Monica ever reported
6 situations where he'd been intoxicated?

7 A. No.

8 Q. All right. Then what happened next after 9 that?

10 A. Okay. It sounded like he went off the steps
11 and then I heard the door shut and then the 12 phone rang again and it was him. He started
13 saying, I'm here to talk to you, send the 14 boy out, I've got something to tell you,
15 it's very important. And then he hung up
16 the phone or I assume because it went
17 dead.

18 And then he came up to the steps again,
19 come out of the vehicle, and he opened the
20 screen door that time and started pounding
21 on the door and jiggling the knob.

22 Q. Did you hear him say anything then?

23 A. Save me, save me. And it was -- I can
24 only -- like I said, I can only assume that
25 it was his head hitting the door because it

1       whether he appeared to be staggering or
2       anything like that?

3       A.   No.

4       Q.   Okay.  So then he leaves the back door or
5       the side door?

6       A.   Goes back to his vehicle.

7       Q.   Goes back to his vehicle?

8       A.   And he makes another phone call.

9       Q.   All right.

10      A.   And I think he said something about I
11      know -- hello, help me, or I can't even 12      remember the third one because I was just 13      not in the frame of, you know.

14      Q.   Okay.

15      A.   And then he went to the back bedroom, which 16      it was the last window on this side of the 17      house, which is where Monica's bedroom was,
18      and I heard him like hit the side of the 19      house.  And then as he was walking back --
20      because I had got up and like walked over to 21      where Monica was at that window.  And he was
22      walking by and I seen a shadow and I ducked
23      and I heard him say, "Ignore me, you fucking
24      bitch."  And then he came to the front door
25      and the back door again and at that time I
